Dear Greg,

Thank you so much for an outstanding presentation on February 12th. I have been hearing wonderful, positive comments from everyone who attended. You really touched everyone's lives that night. A middle school principal and his wife attended. He used the Columbo approach with a student the next day and it "worked".

I was so excited about the program, the audience response and the content of your presentation that I could hardly sleep that night.

Your approach to people is so warm, caring, sensitive and positive. We love your sense of humor. I feel like I have known you for years. I have been doing my best to keep "but" out of my conversations.

Thank you for sharing your tools to effectively communicate with our kids. We truly appreciate you!!!

Sincerely,

Linda Harris
