Dear Greg:

Thank you so much for the outstanding presentation you gave in June and September for our foster parents. All of us thoroughly enjoyed them and found them extremely informative and helpful. The information helped explain so much of what we have observed and experienced.

You have a wonderful gift for communicating. We look forward to being able to take you up on your very generous offer to use your expertise for further foster parent training sessions. Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Rosemary Stevens, M.A.
